Cousin Kate is MAP – melodic alternative pop music with positive lyrics. Based in Los Angeles, the band consists of twin sisters and vocalists, Corinna and Isabelle Cott and guitarist Brian Florian. The band began when Corinna met Brian in Seattle and the two of them were inspired to write music together. When Isabelle joined the duo, their name became Cousin Kate.

The band is currently recording their second album, “Can You Imagine”. The title song, as well as their first album, “Life Without Fear” is available on iTunes and Amazon. They have a catalog of over 100 songs – you can find some of their songs on Youtube.

Cousin Kate believes in the connection of everything, and their intent is to bring greater happiness and love to this world with their music, their lyrics and their presence.
