I have a long standing interest in helping all types of people achieve freedom from alcohol and drug addiction and other types of unhealthy compulsive behaviors including acting out sexually. The gift of therapy can help you understand and stop repeating unhealthy patterns which may be impeding your happiness and success. I work collaboratively with my clients to support them around challenges with Stress, Depression, Anxiety, Relationships, Work, and Recovery from alcohol and drug abuse. The focus of my work is on utilizing life's challenges as catalysts for growth. My clients are interested in exploring their lives and enhancing self awareness so that they may access their inner wisdom and experience deeper peace and a more authentic happiness. Setbacks, breakups/divorce, addictions, career transitions, etc, are challenging aspects of life that often provide the tools for greater self-understanding and the motivation to make valuable life changes. Contact me at 424-387-9016 for a complimentary phone consultation.
