Damien Gonsalves, LMFT, builds compassion and constructive rapport with clients to provide exceptional care as a solutions-oriented therapist. He specializes in L.G.B.T.Q.I.A. affirmative therapy, substance abuse, and treating trauma. Damien helps clients to regulate their psychological states and release trauma stored in the body with a combination of modalities including Havening Techniques®, Trauma Resolution Therapy, Eye movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (E.M.D.R.) and Trauma Resiliency Model (T.R.M), a neuroscience-informed somatic approach to treating trauma. As a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist trained in Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (C.B.T.), he also practices Dialectical Behavior Therapy (D.B.T.) to treat PTSD. Clients speak highly of Damien's gentle, empathetic approach and his expertise in healing emotional patterns so they can become the people they were meant to be.
